

Archibald Blackwood - Margaret Leven

Archibald Blackwood, born in Orwell, Kinross-shire c.1797, son of Archibald Blackwood and Cecilia Hill.

Margaret Leven, born in Dron, Perthshire on 24 February 1799, daughter of John Leven and Christina Smith.

Archibald and Margaret were proclaimed for marriage in the parish of Portmoak, Kinross-shire on 31 December 1824 and in the parish of Kinglassie, Fife on 14 January 1825.

Many of the 1841 Census records for Fife are missing. Parts of the returns for Markinch were saved, but there is no sign of the family on the 1841 Census.

Margaret is in Coaltown of Balgonie, Markinch, Fife on the 1851 Census, but Archibald does not appear to be present.

There is an Archibald Blackwood working as a Farm Servant at Balbougie Farm near Inverkeithing. He was born in Portmoak, Kinross-shire, and is 42 years old; the wrong parish (but next to Orwell) and 12 years too young. However, there is no match for him on the 1861 Census.

Archibald, now widowed, is at Mosside Cottage, Beath, Fife on the 1861 Census. Mosside was on the Old Perth Road, just adjacent to the entrance of what is now Dalbeath Marsh Nature Reserve. His occupation is Cattle Feeder. He is possibly in Crossford Bothy, Dunfermline on the 1871 Census.
